

*King of Aspiration Prayers,
The Aspiration for Noble, Outstanding Conduct*

Homage to the noble youth Manjushri!

All Sugatas past, present and future, the lions of mankind,
however many they are across worlds in the ten directions,
to all of them, without exception,
I pay sincere homage with body, speech and mind.

Through the power of this aspiration for excellent conduct,
I can see all Victors clearly in my mind;
bowing with as many fine bodies as there are atoms in the world,
I fully prostrate to all Victors.

On a single atom are as many Buddhas as there are atoms,
each seated amidst the Buddhas' children;
I imagine that the entire dharmadhatu
is completely filled with Victors.

To them, a ceaseless ocean of veneration,
in an oceanic range of tones and melodies;
I extoll all of the Victors' virtues,
and praise all of the Sugatas.

With the finest flowers, finest garlands,
cymbals, salves, and perfect parasols,
the best lamps and exquisite incense,
I make offerings to those victorious ones.

With refined raiments, rarified fragrances,
and powdered balms piled high as Mount Meru;
of all that is most outstanding, exceptionally arranged,
I make offerings to those victorious ones.

The grandest and most extensive offerings,
these, too, I imagine for all Victors.
With the force of faith in excellent conduct,
I show homage and make offerings to all Victors.

Any and all wrongs I have performed
under the power of desire, aggression and stupidity,
with my body, my speech and likewise my mind,
I confess each and every one of them.

Whatever merit is possessed by all Victors
and children of Buddhas of the ten directions,
by Solitary Victors and those in training and beyond training,
and by all beings—I rejoice in it all.

Those who are as lamps for worlds in the ten directions awakened in stages, until they found enlightened detachment.
I implore all of those protectors
to turn the unsurpassed Wheel.

For the benefit and happiness of all beings,
I make the request, with joined palms,
to those who wish to show the way beyond sorrow,
to yet remain for as many eons as there are atoms in the world.

What little virtue I have accumulated through homage and offering and confession,
and rejoicing, request and petition—
I dedicate it all towards awakening.

To the Buddhas of the past, and all those who reside
in the worlds of the ten directions, I make offerings;
May those yet to come most swiftly fulfill their aims,
pass through the stages of awakening, and reach enlightenment.

Wherever and however many be the realms of the ten directions, may they become vastly and utterly pure.
May they be replete with Victors who have gone before the mighty Bodhi tree, and with children of the Buddhas.

May all sentient beings there are in the ten directions
always be healthy, and happy.
May all beings come into accord with spiritual values
and may their hopes, too, be fulfilled.

May I engage in awakened conduct,
and in each migration take birth consciously.
In all successive lives, as death leads on to rebirth,
May I always embrace the spiritual life.

Through emulating the training of all Victors
may I fully perfect the conduct of excellence and engage in stainless ethical practices
whose complete purity is faultless and never lapses.

In the language of Gods, the speech of Nagas and Yakshas,
in Kumbhanda and Human languages,
with the sounds and voices of all beings,
in all languages, I shall teach the dharma.

Going further, I will give very best effort to the paramitas,
and so will never forget bodhicitta.
May all wrong actions that create obscurations
be thoroughly purified—each and every one.

Freed from karma, kleshas, and the work of Maras,
I shall act for all beings in the world,
just as a lotus is not restrained by water,
and the sun and moon move unhindered through space.

Through the breadth of worlds in all directions
I will fully pacify the suffering of lower states.
I will bring all beings to happiness,
and act for the benefit of all beings.

I will wholly perfect awakened conduct,
working in harmony with the ways of sentient beings.
I will adeptly demonstrate excellence of conduct,
And in all future ages carry on this practice.

May I always enjoy the company of those whose conduct is in accord with my own.
Our bodies, voices, and minds too, shall act,
and our aspirations shall be made, as one.

May I constantly encounter those friends
who wish to assist me,
and who well exemplify excellent conduct.
I shall never relinquish them.

The Lords surrounded by Buddha's children,
these Victors I shall always see before me;
In all future ages, without weariness,
I shall make offerings to them copiously.

Upholding the sacred dharma of the Victors,
I shall employ awakened conduct universally.
In this intensive training in excellent conduct
I shall be fully engaged for all time.

As I pass through all states of existence,
I shall acquire infinite merit and wisdom.
May I become a boundless treasury of skill and intelligence,
concentration, good qualities, and exemplary living.

On a single atom are as many worlds as there are atoms;
in those worlds are Buddhas beyond imagining,
dwelling amidst children of the Buddhas.
I shall observe and emulate their enlightened conduct.

Like that, in any and all directions, too,
in each hair's breadth are oceans of Buddhas, oceans of realms—as many as ever were, are, or will be.
I shall abide in this experience for an ocean of eons.

With one voice conveying oceanic variations of sound,
the melodic branches of a Victor's speech are entirely pure.
May the melodies that suit the minds of all beings constantly enthrall them with the Buddha's speech.

With mental prowess, I, too, will fathom
the unceasing flow of melodic speech
of all Victors enlightened in the three times,
which perfectly turns the wheels of doctrine.

Though I shall remain involved for all eternity,
I shall participate, too, in every single moment;
whatever may be done in ages past, present and future,
I shall attend to in each fraction of an instant.

Enlightened ones of the three times, the lions of humanity—
I see them all in a single moment.
I forever shall enter the domain of their experience
through the power of a miraculous life's journey.

All the designs of the Fields of the three times
I shall fully recreate atop a single atom.
In that way, in all directions, everywhere,
I shall reproduce the Fields of Victors.

All those lamps of the world who have yet to arrive
will progress to full perfection, turn the Wheel,
and demonstrate the final peace that is nirvana.
I shall go before their Majesties!

Through ever so swift miraculous powers,
and the power of Vehicles that afford univereal access,
and the powers of continous, positive conduct,
and the power of love that reaches everywhere;
by the powers of all-embracing merit and virtue,
the power of wisdom that is without attachment,
and the powers of prajna, method and meditation,
the powers of enlightenment I shall perfectly accomplish.

I shall utterly cleanse the forces of karma,
and wholly defeat the forces of mental disturbance.
I shall render evil forces entirely impotent,
And perfect the power of excellent conduct.

I shall fully purify an ocean of realms,
and totally liberate an ocean of beings;
clearly perceive an ocean of dharmas,
and completely perfect an ocean of wisdom;
make an ocean of conduct immaculately pure,
and finally accomplish an ocean of aspirations;
make the finest offerings to an ocean of Buddhas,
and do so, without faltering, for an ocean of eons.

The diverse aspirations for awakened conduct of Victors enlightened in the past, present or future—
I shall accomplish them all, none excepted,
by awakening to Buddhahood through excellent conduct.

The seniormost child of all Victors
the one whose name is Samantabhadra—
so that my conduct will match his in expertise,
I entirely dedicate all of this virtue.

His body, speech, and mind, too, are fully pure,
and his perfect conduct purifies realms.
As the master's dedication is exalted,
may I become fully his equal in every respect.

To engage in excellent virtue at all times,
I shall enact the aspiration of Manjusri.
In all ages to come, without despairing,
I shall complete every one of his deeds.

May their actions be immeasurable.
May their qualities, too, be impossible to measure.
Since they abide in conduct that cannot be defined,
I will pay homage to all their emanations.

As far as space itself may reach,
the range of sentient beings is just as vast;
whatever may be the extent of their karma and klesas,
my aspirations shall extend just as far.

Though one might adorn infinite realms
throughout the ten directions with precious jewels
and offer them to the Victors, or offer them
the greatest delights known to gods and men
for as many eons as there are atoms in the universe,
one who, having heard this king of dedications,
is well inspired to pursue supreme awakening
and, even just once, generates faith,
will develop the highest, most hallowed merit.

Those who cast this Aspiration Prayer for Excellent Conduct will relinquish all lower realms.

They will renounce all inferior companions.

They will swiftly come to see Amitabha, too.

They will encounter what is most favorable, and flourish.

Even in this life, all will go well for them.

In no time at all, they will become just like Samantabhadra.

If those who, under the power of ignorance,

have committed the five bad acts of immediate consequence recite this "Excellent Conduct,"

then all those acts, without remainder, will be swiftly cleansed.

They will come to possess wisdom, health, and fine features,
a noble lineage and good complexion.

Evil beings and heretics in great number will not daunt them;
indeed, all three worlds will come to revere them.

They will soon draw near the mighty Bodhi tree,
and once there, to benefit sentient beings,
they will take their seats, awaken, become Buddhas,
eminently turn the Wheel,
and subdue the evil and all their followers.

The final fruition, for anyone who reads, recites or retains this aspiration prayer for excellent conduct,
only Buddhas comprehend;
have no doubt that it is supreme enlightenment.

As heroic Manjushri realized,
so, too, did Samantabhadra.

I will emulate them both,
and perfectly dedicate all of this virtue.

With the dedication that is most highly praised by all Victors enlightened in the three times,
I, too, fully dedicate all of these roots of virtue towards excellence of conduct.

When the time comes for me to die,
may all my obscurations be cleared away;
meeting Amitabha in person,
may I hasten to the realm of Sukhavati.

Once I reach there, may all these aspirations,
without exception, actually come to pass.
I shall completely fulfill each and every one of them,
and benefit sentient beings for as long as the world endures.

In that excellent and joyous mandala of Victors,
may I be born from a most immaculate, lovely lotus.
There, may I also receive a prediction directly from the Victor Amitabha.

Once I have obtained a superb prediction there,
with a hundred million emanations
mentally dispatched throughout the ten directions
I shall accomplish enormous benefit for sentient beings.

May the slight virtue I have accumulated through casting this Aspiration for Excellent Conduct instantly bring fulfillment to all the virtuous aspirations of beings.

May the outstanding, limitless merit obtained through proper dedication of excellent conduct deliver beings who are drowning in a torrent of suffering
to the sublime realm of Amitabha.
